

INSTRUCTIONS FOR COMPLETING THE PRE-RENTAL APPLICATION

Please read the instructions below before completing the application

1. Complete all sections of the pre-rental application; if a section does not apply to you, put "N/A."
2. All information provided in the Application will be verified and treated as confidential. False, incomplete, or misleading information will result in the rejection of your pre-application.
3. Credit/Criminal background checks and rental references will be requested for all adult household members 18 or older.
4. All household members 18 years and older applying for housing must sign and date the Application.
5. After the Agent receives your completed pre-application, they will make a preliminary determination of eligibility based on program and property criteria. If your household appears to be eligible for housing, your family will be placed on a waiting list, but this does not mean that your family will be offered an apartment. Every household must be screened to qualify for an apartment. When your name nears the top of the waiting list, you will be contacted to provide additional information for eligibility, screening, and suitability.
6. Applications will be reviewed as quickly as possible to determine preliminary eligibility.
7. If your household does not appear eligible, you will receive a letter denying your pre-application, and you will not be placed on the waiting list. You will have the right to appeal this decision. Instructions for the appeal process will be provided with the appeal letter.
8. It is your responsibility to respond to any waiting list application updates sent to you by the Agent.
9. Completing a pre-application does not guarantee eligibility or qualification for an apartment at this development.
10. For more information or questions, please call the Property Management Office.

CHANGES TO YOUR APPLICATION

Once your pre-application is complete and on file with the Agent, it is your responsibility to notify the Agent in writing whenever there is a change in your address, telephone number, income situation, or household composition. Please report changes to your pre-application in writing to Applications@UHMproperties.com.

PENALTIES FOR MISUSING THIS CONSENT

Title 18, Section 1001 of the U.S. Code states that a person is guilty of a felony for knowingly and willingly making false or fraudulent statements to any department of the United States Government. HUD and any owner (or any employee of HUD or the owner) may be subject to penalties for unauthorized disclosures of improper use of information collected based on the consent form. Use of the information collected based on this verification form is restricted to the purposes cited above. Any person who knowingly or willingly requests, obtains or discloses any information under false pretenses concerning an applicant or participant may be subject to a misdemeanor and fined not more than $5,000. Any applicant or participant affected by negligent disclosure of information may bring civil action for damages, and seek other relief, as may be appropriate, for misusing the social security number as provided under the Social Security Act at 208 (a) (6), (7) and (8). Violation of these provisions are cited as violations of 42 U.S.C. 408 (a) (6), (7) and (8).

Note: The HUD Supplemental Application for Federally Assisted Housing Form must be completed.

The information collection requirements contained in this form were submitted to the Office of Management and Budget (OMB) under the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995 (44 U.S.C. 3501-3520). The public reporting burden is estimated at 15 minutes per response, including the time for reviewing instructions, searching existing data sources, gathering and maintaining the data needed, and completing and reviewing the collection of information. Section 644 of the Housing and Community Development Act of 1992 (42 U.S.C. 13604) imposed on HUD the obligation to require housing providers participating in HUD's assisted housing programs to provide any individual or family applying for occupancy in HUD-assisted housing with the option to include in the application for occupancy the name, address, telephone number, and other relevant information of a family member, friend, or person associated with a social, health, advocacy, or similar organization. The objective of providing such information is to facilitate contact by the housing provider with the person or organization identified by the tenant to assist in providing any delivery of services or special care to the tenant and assist with resolving any tenancy issues arising during the tenancy of such tenant. This supplemental application information is to be maintained by the housing provider and maintained as confidential information. Providing the information is basic to the operations of the HUD Assisted-Housing Program and is voluntary. It supports statutory requirements and program and management controls that prevent fraud, waste and mismanagement. In accordance with the Paperwork Reduction Act, an agency may not conduct or sponsor, and a person is not required to respond to, a collection of information, unless the collection displays a currently valid OMB control number.

Privacy Statement: Public Law 102-550, authorizes the Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) to collect all the information (except the Social Security Number (SSN)) which will be used by HUD to protect disbursement data from fraudulent actions.
